It was a pleasure to burn.

Ray Bradbury, Fahrenheit 451

It was a bright cold day in April, and the clocks were striking thirteen.

George Orwell, 1984

It is a truth universally acknowledged, that a single man in possession of a good fortune, must be in want of a wife.

Jane Austen, Pride and Prejudice

Miss Brooke had that kind of beauty which seems to be thrown into relief by poor dress.

George Eliot, Middlemarch
